Coldest Wave In Several Years

Light Snow Falls But Not Enough to Hurt Cattle in the Panhandle Section

The coldest wave in about 15 years swept the Panhandle Sunday.

The temperature fell to 2 degrees above zero Sunday night; 11 degrees below zero Monday night; and 14 degrees above zero yesterday morning.

A light snow accompanied the drop in temperature, but was of little consequence. Stockmen were grateful that there was no snow, recalling the heavy loss of cattle in years past when the temperatures dropped with a heavy snow on the ground.

Frozen pipes, frost-bitten fingers and ears, and the general discomfort of a period of low temperature were the only casualties of the record cold wave.

With the temperature greatly modified yesterday, the weatherman promised that the mercury would continue to rise.

District Court Has Very Little Work For Term

For the first time in several years the Grand Jury was dismissed Tuesday without returning an indictment. Dr. Harris M. Cook reported to Judge Henry S. Bishop that the grand jury has investigated several cases, but found no bills.

The petit jury was dismissed Tuesday without being used.

The winter term of district court will come to an end Saturday. There has been practically no business before the court this term.

Rotary Anns Take Over Program at the Annual Dinner

The annual Rotary Ann Dinner was held Friday night by the Canyon Rotary Club, with 84 in attendance.

The evening proceeded according to plans until President Lee Johnson arose to make introductions. At this point Rotary Ann Grace Warwick pushed the astonished presiding officer aside and announced that she had usurped the office of president. Other officers were brushed aside by the new president, who called up Rotary Anns Hollyce Hinkle, Grace Knighton, Tom Thompson, Dorothy Smith and Frances Foster as members of a new cabinet.

Rotarian Boone McClure was called upon to give the welcome address, but was given the gong after uttering one word. Rotary Ann Kathleen Bishir responded to the welcome, praising the astonished Rotarian Boone for the eloquence of his address.

After this the program was in an uproar as a quiz program was put on.

The entertainment concluded in time for all members to attend the Buffalo-Tech basketball game.

Funeral Of Prominent Local Woman Was Held Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Dan K. Usery died Monday morning at 3:30 o'clock at the family home, 1906 Sixth Ave. She has been ill for several weeks and last month suffered a stroke from which she never recovered. She seemed to be improved Sunday, but suddenly became worse at 2:30 Monday morning and was dead within an hour.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Christian Church. Rev. Joseph Findley read the scripture and offered prayer.

Dr. D. A. Shirley, intimate of the family for nearly 30 years, paid tribute to the life and work of the deceased.

Mr. Rudolph was publisher of the Tascosa Pioneer, one of the first newspapers in the Panhandle. She grew to womanhood among the traditions of the Southwest, and was endued with the spirit and qualities of the Plainsman.

Miss Rudolph and Dan K. Usery were married at Stratford on Oct. 19, 1909. She came to Canyon as a bride, Mr. Usery being on the staff of the News. With the exception of a few years, Canyon has been the home of the family since the marriage.

During her life here, she had given freely of her time and talent in the development of those things which have done so much to improve the community. She was a member of the Woman's Book Club for many years, and served as its president. When the Randall County Library was formed, she was appointed by the Commissioners Court to represent the county during the formative period. She was a charter member of the Merry Maids and Matrons Club.

Surviving are: the husband, Dan K. Usery, and one daughter, Mrs. Houston Bright, member of the Music Department of West Texas State. The class will be open to all students.

W. T. Is Made Navy Center

Larger Group of Flyers To Be Trained—Hill Has Conference Appropriation

President J. A. Hill returned yesterday morning from Dallas and Austin where he has been on a two fold business trip.

In the first place he was notified in Dallas that West Texas State was now a Naval Training College. During the past semester both navy and army fliers have been trained at the local flying field. The army and navy has divided the colleges, with the navy taking West Texas State for the training of its aviation students.

A recommendation had been mailed to Washington by the naval station at Dallas that 40 men be stationed here for training. Officers at Dallas were highly pleased with the results of the training given here to the men. If the plan is approved in Washington, additional students will be assigned here at once, and will be increased as facilities are improved.

At Austin Dr. Hill conferred with college presidents, the Board of Control and members of the legislature regarding appropriations for the coming two years. The decline in attendance due to the war has created a real problem in passing appropriations for the colleges.

Dr. Hill stated that he found a willingness on the part of the legislature to work with the institutions in order that just and equitable appropriations be passed for each institution in the state. New information is being sought from each institution. The Presidents will meet in Austin again the middle of February to take up the matter of appropriations with the legislature.

Second Semester of West Texas to Start Next Week

War courses will have a prominent place in the second semester of West Texas State College beginning January 26.

Intensive training will prepare young men and women for war jobs, military careers, and other employment in less time than formerly. An entire year's work will be done in some business subjects by scheduling twice as many hours.

The spring semester is starting earlier than usual to make way for a 15-week Summer Session opening May 24. In coming months, most college men will go into military service, although some of them will remain here for special training. It is not believed that Naval reservists will be called before the end of the spring semester, in most instances.

Married Men to Be Called Soon

Selective Service headquarters at Washington have notified all local boards to start processing married men for calls early this year.

Many local boards have exhausted the supply of single men, both those without and with dependents.

The Randall county board has not had to call up married men for several months, but judging from this warning it is indicated that the calls will be larger than usual this year.

The local board will start a complete survey of the manpower of Randall county when it holds the weekly meeting Friday afternoon.

Geo. W. Cox Is Given Contract

West Texas State Flying Field Is Official Name Given Approval Friday

Canyon now has a designated air port. George W. Cox has taken over the lease on the flying field which has been operated for two years by West Texas State, and has been designated as the flight contractor for students who are being trained at the college.

The official name is the West Texas State Flying Field. It is operated under the name of the Canyon Air Service, of which Mr. Cox is owner.

In addition to the contract under which students are given instruction, Mr. Cox offers to the public the use of good pilots who will give private lessons and will render general air service. He has four new planes at the field and is buying six more planes in order to take care of the additional students who are promised to the college. Naval Cadets are being trained primarially, and it is believed that the number of cadets will be increased to 40 men in the near future.

Mr. Cox became interested in aviation last fall and formed the Canyon Flying Club which purchased one plane. Since that time he has travelled thousands of miles gathering information which would make it possible for him to take over the instruction contract for students and offer recognized aviation service for the public. He was encouraged in these plans by President J. A. Hill and all local citizens who had hoped for an officially designated field for Canyon.

The field was designated after it met numerous C.A.A. requirements, including the improvement of equipment and hangar facilities. Enlargement of the present hangar facilities on the field, located on the Amarillo-Canyon highway, is now under construction and will afford a total of 3444 square feet of hangar space when completed. In addition to this hangar, another for the plane belonging to the Canyon Flying Club is on the Field.

The West Texas State Flying Field was designated with Dr. William L. Ball as airport manager. Dr. S. H. Condron, coordinator for the C.A.A. at West Texas State, was instrumental in securing the designation of the field, whereby cross country visitors can put in at the Canyon port.

Kenneth G. Fincher, formerly of Amarillo, moved from the Abilene Aviation School to become chief flight instructor. Fincher had been instructing in the War Training Service program in primary flight and handling of office records at the Abilene school. Fincher will have two more instructors on his flight staff when the next program commences.

Mr. Cox announced that Mrs. Viva Belle Cabe would be the Field Clearance Officer, with James W. Cabe as guard and assistant.

Since flying at West Texas State began as extra-curricular course under the C.A.A. and C.P.T. four years

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

BEHIND THE LINES

The most far-reaching speech of the past generation from the standpoint of preserving individual liberty under our American form of government, was made by United States Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Democrat.

Without rancor or partisanship, he shows that we face a danger at home, not so much from our enemies "as from the ideology which made those enemies prepare and precipitate the war, the ideology of the authoritarian state."

We are rapidly drifting toward the totalitarian idea that the state is the master and that the individual has no rights which the state must respect. The Senator traces the growth of bureaucracy in our country up to the moment, and shows that it is but a short step from the point at which we now are to the European theory of the authoritarian state.

"If we believe, as the founders tion of the powers of government of this nation did, in a separa- into the legislative, the executive and the judicial, and if we look for the restoration of that balance after the war, then it is imperative that we should at least make ourselves acquainted with the recent trends of government," said Senator O'Mahoney.

He then cites from the record to demonstrate how executive orders and acts of bureaus have developed a new executive legislative function. He shows how "a new manifsetation of the expansion of executive power became evident, namely the tendency, by interpretation, to expand the power and authority given by statute. The recent remarkablue salary limitation, by the Director of Economic Stabilization is a case in point. Again the re-writing by regulation of the provisions of the recent price control amendments to encourage agricultural production, by which the intent of Congress was defeated to make effective the intent of the bureaus, is another illustration.

"To say that Congress intended to surrender its legislative function would, of course, be the sheerest nonsense.

"Advocates of a new order opposed to democracy have reached their conclusions because they believe that the modern world has become so complex that people can no longer govern themselves as they did in the handicraft era, but must be governed by experts who will tell them what they ought to do and also what they must do."

Senator O'Mahoney then points out that government by executive order, and bureaucratic pronouncements which sidetrack Congress, is dangerous because a pattern can be set "whereby weak executives surrounded by tremendous concentrated power, will become the instruments of a permanent bureaucracy."

IT IS WORTHWHILE?

Many a business man has remarked during the past few weeks, "Is it worth while trying to run a business?"

Every man in business for himself has no doubt asked himself this question. For an answer, he has to relay upon himself, rather than upon the advice of others.

As he contemplates the dwindling stocks of merchandise; the increased costs of operation; the constant and increasing number of reports that he must make to the government; the labor shortage; the added taxes, and increased bookkeeping; the critical attitude of a small percentage of the people who have not yet realized that we are at war. When he contemplates all of these things his mind naturally turns to the other side of the situa- which the government is throwing tion.

He hears of the fabulous wages out to its employees. He reads that the President still thinks that 40 hours a week is all men should work, and if a man works more he time. He sees men and women who must draw time and a half over- as himself stepping into these big were not nearly so well prepared jobs, getting big wages, and he realizes that he is going to be forced to buy more bonds and pay higher taxes to pay the wages of such people.

Many lines of business have of necessity folded up for the duration because of the lack of help, and utter lack of merchandise and ma- Any business which is performing terials. a public service to the public should survive, and should be continued, even if it be a sacrifice to the owner or owners.

After all, in spite of the hardships going today, just who would trade through which business men are places with the boys who are on the firing lines in the Pacific, in Africa, or other parts of the world where our men are now engaged in combat?

Some of these days the war will be over; conditions will drift back to normal, and men will be allowed again to run their own businesses without so much red tape, and so much government regulation.

It is pretty sound advice to hold on to your business as long as possible. If the time comes that the government will need any man or any line of business, he will be called upon to liquidate, and join up with governmental forces.

The Newsman has a cousin who works in Washington trying to teach officials of one department how to write letters which may be understood. It is unfortunate that a thousand or more English teachers have not been at work in Washington trying to teach officials how to write orders and bulletins which may be understood by laymen. Regulations for truck operations have been underfire for a long time, largely because no one could comprehend what all of the thousands of words meant to convey. Selective Service Boards and Rationing Boards receive great masses of materials, orders and regulations which no one can understand. An elaborate system was recently issued under Selective Service by which it might be determined whether or not a man was necessary to agriculture. It was written for Selective Service by the Department of Agriculture. A Philadelphia lawyer could not tell heads or tails about the order, so now a simpler order is promised. In the rush to do things at Washington, the whole point is missed by using hundreds of unnecessary words when simple terms should be used.

The message of the President to Congress on the financial needs of the nation should convince every American citizen that he will have a definite part in the war program.

The President calls for the largest appropriation in the history of the world. No other nation has ever appropriated such a large sum for the conduct of a war. There is little doubt that Congress will respond and provide every dollar needed to win the war. But the independence of Congress will be shown in the manner in which other appropriations will be investigated by Congress. In the good old days the privileged few paid taxes. Today every person is paying taxes, and as a taxpayer every man has the right and privilege of scruitinizing the measures for which money is being appropriated. It is no longer the case of "letting George do it," so far as taxes are concerned, because "George" means every citizen.

When it was first announced that women would be taken into the army and trained as WAACs, there was a question as to the advisability. When the first women took their places in the army, it was found that the organization was worth while, and now women's groups are being formed in every branch of the service. Women are now teaching aviators in both the army and navy. It is stated that women teachers are doing excellent work, and that the soldier and sailor aviation student appreciates the sincere efforts of the women teachers. The fact is being driven home more and more, day by day, that it is going to take the combined efforts of all this nation to win the war.

Governor Stevenson calls upon the legislature to redistrict the state. The constitution provides that the state shall be redistricted after every census. But the legislature ignores this mandate since many members would be out of jobs because of the reshuffling of district boundaries. Naturally the districts which should be increased in size will oppose splitting up with districts which are over-populated as in the case of West Texas and South Texas districts. Something should have been done about redistricting many years ago, but the legislators have not seen fit to disturb present districts.

Selective Service has issued orders that married men will be inducted into the army in all counties this spring. The calls for men will be heavy, according to word received by local boards. While many counties have been calling up married men for several months, the Randall county board has had sufficient manpower of single men to meet the calls. It will be different in the future. It is very clear that more men have been shipped to the battle fronts than most of us realize, and further that the training camps are taking care of men more rapidly than ever before.

Our Governor is a brave man. He proposes that needless district courts should be abolished by theh legislature. With court business at a low ebb throughout the state, courts are running low on business. About 75 per cent of the members of the legislature are lawyers, and most jealously protect the interest of the courts.

We have another wrangle in progress in the Railroad Commission. It seems that we have a constant row going on in this department. Every time there is a change in personnel, two of the members line up against the third—or one member lines up against the two others.

THE HOG THAT WILL NEVER GO TO MARKET

It's a hog you don't see in this country. Landrace is the breed, a wonderful bacon hog developed in Denmark.

The Danes were just about the very best farmers in the world. They were a thrifty people. Through their farm cooperatives they produced and marketed livestock and farm products of the finest quality.

Successful and happy were these farmers—until one day the Germans came. They took the hog. They took all hogs. They took the butter and the cheese—and the cooperatives too. Like vultures, they picked Denmark to the bone.

Remember this story as you market your livestock, crops and other farm produce. Remember it and put every dollar you can into U. S. War Bonds—every dollar you can.

Every dollar in Bonds that you can for your country and for yourself. Your Government needs that money now and you yourself are making a sound investment.

The bonds never depreciate in value. You get a third more than the original cost of the Bonds in ten years. You can always cash the Bonds after sixty days if you need the money. Buy now — at your bank or post office.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO

Non-Residential Users Of Natural Gas

War Production Board Order L-31, as amended November 12, 1942, imposes certain restrictions on our right to deliver natural gas to you, and on your right to use natural gas. These restrictions, which apply only to NON-RESIDENTIAL GAS USERS (such as large or small business concerns of any kind, commercial establishments and industries), may affect your plans in the event you desire to do any of the following:

1. MOVE YOUR BUSINESS.
2. REPLACE YOUR GAS-FIRED EQUIPMENT.
3. INSTALL ADDITIONAL GAS-FIRED EQUIPMENT.
4. REQUEST GAS SERVICE FOR A NEW BUSINESS.
5. IN SOME CASES, WHEN YOU APPLY FOR RESTORATION OF GAS SERVICE.

Should you desire to obtain gas service under any of the above conditions, you should file an application for permission to do so with the War Production Board, and have such application certified by us. We have the necessary forms for your use.

Our purpose in calling this Order to your attention is to enable you to make your plans accordingly, IN ADVANCE of your actual need for gas service, or IN ADVANCE of any change in your gas-fired equipment. This nation-wide War Production Board Order is designed to curtail additional non-essential gas use, because of the anticipated inability of many gas companies to supply all gas needs in severely cold weather.

Some you no doubt have questions to ask. If so, we have at our office a qualified company employee who will be glad to discuss any contemplated changes in your gas service or equipment, and to advise you whether or not such changes will require the filing of an application for approval with the War Production Board.

The lunatic asylum in a Saar town was recently evacuated. Before the war thirty-four of the inmates had claimed to be Hitler. On evacuation there were only twelve Hitlers, which shows that even lunacy has its limits.

Mrs. S. H. Condron, assisted by Mrs. Spencer P. Whippo, was in charge of the program of the Woman's Book Club Wednesday afternoon Jan. 13.

Mrs. Condron reviewed the recent elections, saying that Republican gains are due chiefly to public resentment over the outcome of the Solomon Islands campaign and the teen-age draft bill. Neat Reply

There is a certain suburban home whose owner's principal delight is it keeping spick and span. After dinner he and a guest were smoking on the lawn. The guest, after lighting his cigar, threw the burned match on the ground.

"Oh, I wouldn't do that, George," said the host.

"Why not?"

"It spoils the appearance of everything," was the answer. "It's just those little things that make a place look bad."

The guest smoked his cigar in silence for a few minutes; then, without a word, he got up, walked down the road, and disappeared. He returned in a short time.

His host asked, "Where have you been, George?"

"Oh, I just went down to the river to spit," replied George.

"Shine, please, boy!" said the six foot five soldier to the bootblack.

The boy looked at the vast expanse of boot before him and shook his head questioningly. Then a determined look covered his face.

"Bert," he called to another boy, "gimme a hand! I've got an army contract!"

A Scotchman had just been awarded a ten thousand dollar prize in a slogan contest. In a few days the contest manager of the concern received the following letter: "Dear Sirs: I have just received the ten thousand dollars, but you have failed to include the stamped, self-addressed envelope I sent along with the poem. Kindly return it and oblige. Angus MacTavish."

MAYHEM

A bishop was invited to dinner. During the meal he was astonished to hear the young daughter of the house state that a person must be very brave these days to go to church.

"Why do you say that?" asked the bishop.

"Because," said the child, "I heard papa tell mama last Sunday there was a big shot in the pulpit, the canon was in the vestry, the choir murdered an anthem, and the organist drowned the choir."

OH, BOY!

Dear Pa: If you want me to come back to the farm when Uncle Sam says he don't need me any more—here's what you'd better do. Buy two of the meanest mules you can find. Name one of them "Corporal" and the other "Sergeant." I'll be glad to spend the rest of my days just telling them two jackasses why I made a mistake when I didn't join the Navy instead of falling for this soldier stuff. Your loving son, Private (no class) Jasper Higgs.

ON TIME

"Now, my son," said the fond mother, as the boy was starting off to join the Navy, "remember to be punctual in rising every morning so you will not keep the captain waiting breakfast for you."

Taxes Are Discussed at the Rotary Lunch Tuesday at Noon

G. G. Foster was in charge of the Rotary Club weekly program Tuesday.

J. W. Smyth of Amarillo was introduced and talked on the new taxes which had been imposed. The Victory Tax is not a tax, but a withholding tax on all salaries amounting to $12 per week. This money is in the hands of the federal government and will be applied on the payment of income taxes the following year.

In view of the wide discussion in Congress of changing the income tax law, many citizens believe they will not have to make a return on their 1942 incomes. Mr. Smyth warned that this is not the case. Every person liable to an income tax must make a return regardless of any changes that Congress may make.

The Roml plan, or some modified plan will likely be adopted by Congress since there is a wide feeling that a different system should be adopted.

Gerald Warwick, Donnie Avent, Harley Gordon and Bill Heizer returned to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station after spending the past week with relatives.

Added instructors will be furnished by the W.T.S. as the quota of men is increased. Instructor Fincher reported that his two instructors would be taken from a class for teachers recently completed in Lubbock.

Under construction now at the West Texas State Flying Field is the additional hangar space which will house eight planes when completed. Mr. Cox announced that a students lounge and study room would be begun soon as will the construction of a parts room and flying school office. Behind the enlarged hangar will be a 16 by 24 foot repair shop.

Do you know the future tense of "I give?" Here's one for the books. One member of Mrs. Corrah Lee Braudt's English class gave this as "You take." Quite true realistically, if not grammatically.

My, how this younger generation gets around! I saw James Inman and Harry Campfield proudly escorting Marilyn Williams and Valeta Haines to the show Saturday night. Now wonder why they picked a mystery?

Spanish Teacher Arrives With Welcome Sense of Humor

Out go the old,
In come the new,
But this time at mid-term—

Five feet four, blue eyes, an eviable complexion and a definite sense of humor characterize Miss Claryce Whitten, the new techer to replace Mrs. James Jennings after mid-term.

Eating chocolate sundaes (her favorite food) and watching Clark Gable and Lana Turner (her favorite movie stars) act pleases her almost as much as painting (her hobby).

Even though she hails from Amarillo, she likes Canyon better than Amarillo, and by her first impression, likes CHS mighty well.

A graduate of West Texas State College with a degree in English, Miss Whitten will teach Spanish and English.

Replacing Mrs. R. E. Harter in her position as third grade teacher is Mrs. Houston Doughty, who will assume her duties in Canyon Grade School Monday. Since obtaining her degree from West Texas State College, Mrs. Doughty has taught in several schools, having been most recently employed at Bivins Station.

Mrs. Harter, who has taught in Canyon for five and one-half years, is planning to make her home in California.

Activities Include Assembly Plans

With varied discussion for plans of future activities, six classes in Canyon High School met for their regular meetings Friday morning.

With an eye on school entertainment, the Senior Class discussion of a class play was in line with the juniors' plans for their assembly program. The Sophomore Class began preparations for their program to be given February 19.

Recreation dominated the meetings of the lower classes, with the songs of Evelyn Garrison and Kathleen Hillier predominating the freshman schedule, games serving the eighth grade attendants, and story-telling acting as the seventh grade's diversion.

Teachers Receive Boost of Wages

As a climax of the School Board of the Canyon Public Schools remeeting January 13, the teachers ceived a $60 bonus salary, or $5 per month, for the 1942-43 school term, becoming effective October 1, 1942.

Besides the teachers, both the high school and grade school custodians were given a substantial raise in wages to help meet the rising cost of living.

Collins' Class Fills Pig Bank First

Bearing money to purchase one soldier's kit, a committee of six representing Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade visited the Canyon Red Cross Chapter last Wednesday.

Bobby Cole, Teddy Ray Lowe, Ted Briggs, Carol Ann Holt, Lila Mae Hunter, and Rita Jo Crow comprised the committee.

Teacher's Going Was Inspiration of Poet

To honor Mrs. R. E. Harter, third grade teacher, who is moving to California at mid-term, Mrs. A. L. Walsh entertained the grade school faculty with a dinner in her home Saturday.

After presenting her with a large crystal bowl from the faculty, Mrs. Roscoe Davis read this poem composed by Mrs. John Davis:

Dear Gracie:
We are glad that we are giving;
We're glad that you're receiving;
We're glad that we have had you—
But we're sad that you are leaving.

In the buying of this gift,
We've each one had a part—
Each teacher and our Elva,
God bless her little heart!

We think the gift is useful,
And we hope that it will last;
'Twill serve as a reminder
Of our school days of the past.

Remember all of us teachers here
That you have left behind,
As we go to our school rooms,
And to the same old grind.

There's Kathleen, Agnes, Stella, Lucille,
Walking, walking (no automobile);
There's Hazel, Myrtle, Martha—all,
Keeping order in the study hall.

Dixon, Isabel, and Florence dear,
Sarah, and Elva, and Mr. Speer;
Remember us as friends most true—
Because we really do love you.

RIDING ALONG TOGETHER

Cavalry Recruit: "Sergeant, pick me out a nice gentle horse."

Sergeant: "Have you ever ridden a horse before?"

Recruit: "No."

Things are beginning to buzz in the feminine section of the Sports Department as volley ball season commences. Miss Helen Whiteside, instructor, reports that her classes have been playing for several weeks and that a school team will be selected in the near future.

Summer sport in mid-winter!

Several budding tennis champs were seen on college courts during the recent warm weather. Among the more notable of these were Bob Copeland and John Gill.

P. S. What was Frankie Phillips doing so far from home?

Total of the field trips made by the '42—'43 squad to date is 290 miles. The Stratford trip alone averaged 215 miles.

GOOD NEWS: Canyon is the site of the '42-'43 district tournament to be held on February 12-13. Whether the tournament will be played at Burton Gym or the Canyon High gym, however, is a question of the future.

SAD NEWS: One of the favorite sports of Canyon High will come to a premature death at the semester. Mrs. James Jennings, Spanish teacher has resigned. Her alarm clock, or more exactly, the alarm of her alarm clock has caused hundreds of students great enjoyment, but now that the sport of setting this alarm is taken away C.H.S. students will just have to find some other means of amusement.

Candidate: Mrs. Tabor's alarm clock.

INCOMPATIBLES

"Say, you must be sick. You look terrible!"

"And I feel terrible. "I should have known those English peas and German noodles that I ate for lunch wouldn't agree."

To the family and relatives of Mrs. Dan K. Usery, who died early in this week, The Eagle's Tale staff and sponsor wish to express their sincere sympathy.

Dan Usery, linotype operator at the Warwick Printing Shop, has done much to help The Eagle's Tale during its several years of publication, and Mrs. Houston Bright, daughter of the deceased, was a music instructor in Canyon Public Schools last year.

Swing and Sway Is Void in Hammocks

"Canyon High was once a kinda' dismal place, so I thought, but now it looks like a resort," commented Donnie Avent, as Bill Heizer, Gerald Warwick, and he visited their Alma Mater last week on leave from their Naval Training Base on the Great Lakes.

Just completing training in what is commonly known as Boot Camp, or rather a training camp, these boys were given a nine-day leave; so they made the most of their time and came home.

Donnie, Bill, and Gerald are ex-students of Canyon High and have been stationed on the Great Lakes for about two months.

Since every venture in life has some queer quirk these sailors report that while serving on kitchen duty they found a proper nickname for the P and G soap product—Push and Grunt; and instead of making up neat rows of army cots, these adventurers had quite a trying experience in making up hammocks.

Fun really circulated, however, when they tried rocking themselves to sleep in the hammocks, and one by one they fell out. "Balance is more than a sense of humor in the navy," said Gerald.

As these boys journey back they will enter different units in the navy—Donnie will enter the anti-air craft classes, Gerald the mechanics division, and Bill will train for gunner's mate.

Officials Criticize The Eagle's Tale

Entries, with criticisms, returned Monday from the journalism contest sponsored by the Texas High School Press Association held December 11 at the Texas State College for Women at Denton.

After the papers had been criticized and graded according to their comparison with other papers, the publications were returned to the individual schools.

Outstanding criticisms of The Eagle's Tale concerned fewer jokes as filler, more forcible headlines, and less over-coloring of stories.

TWO OUT OF THREE

"God has endowed the German people with three qualities—honesty, intelligence, and Naziism. But, in His wisdom, He has allowed each German but two of these. Thus, if a German is honest and a Nazi, he cannot be intelligent. If he is intelligent and a Nazi, he can not be honest. And if he is both honest and intelligent, he can not be a Nazi."

Quintet Defeats Battling Bucks

Eagle Hoopsters Receive Defeat for Semi-Finals

Off to a brilliant start in the Stratford tournament, the Canyon Eagles triumphed 26-22 over the White Deer Bucks in their first game.

Winning this game, the Eagles moved to the semi-finals along with Texhoma. In the hard, fast game which insued the Eagles were beaten by a score of 35-44. Eight points, which made the difference between success and failure, were a simple margin compared to the size of the Texhoma squad. Returning Eagles reported that this was one of the roughest and fastest games of the tournament.

Leading the other Canyon hoopsters, center Chic Wirt was responsible for 14 of the 26 points scored in the White Deer game and 11 of the 35 scores made in the Texhoma game.

While they could have stayed to play a consolation game, the Eagles chose to return to Canyon after the semi-final defeat because of the cold weather.

Note—Arrival of Old Man "Mid" Term

"Hey diddle diddle— —
Start in the middle,
Scan several pages,
Decide it's the bunk.
Glare at a history,
Decide it's a mystery,
Don't let it worry you,
You'll only flunk!"

Yes! Books, papers, books, pens and BOOKS will be the fad until January 22, since mid-term examinations are here again, and will be over the 22.

Some of the students think midterms should be abolished because they are such a strain on them during those weeks that no one is any Sometimes more than three weeks. good for two or three weeks after.

Epitaph

To the memory of Little Johnny Doe, who died while taking on English mid-term exam. May memory of his life be an inspiration to other students who put off and put off until it's too late.

Students Will Fly New War Flag

As a goal for future Bond and Stamp sales, students of Canyon High may fly a "Treasury Schools at War Flag" below the National Flag if 90 per cent of the students buy for freedom during the month of January. Only during the month following the percentage participation, or as long as the goal is attained, is it possible to fly the flag.

War savings committee members added a sales period this week by selling not only on Monday, but Tuesday to enable students to purchase Bonds and Stamps more easily. By this method, the 90 per cent mark should be attained.

"A definite decrease in sales has occurred during the period since Pearl Harbor Day that must be regained by this month's sales," exclaimed Polly Winstead, a member of the sales committee.

Musicians Render Yearly Concert

West Texas State Band, directed by C. E. Strain, appeared in the Canyon High School assembly Friday for its annual concert. After introducing Canyon High School exes who are members of his organization, Mr. Strain began the program with the "Star Spangled Banner."

National theme songs played included "The Army Air Corps March," "The Marine Hymn," "Anchors Aweigh," "America," "Stars and Stripes Forever," and "America the Beautiful."

Novelty numbers and marches presented were "Post Freedom," "Air Waves," "Freedom's Flag," "The Song of the Sea Bees," and "The National Emblem." "Crusaders" was included as the only overture of the program.

'Aunt Susie' Wins Seniors' Decision

As time draws near for the production of the Senior Play, members of the class have selected a mystery farce, and tryouts will be held soon.

Fred Caldwell's latest play entitled "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works" was chosen over "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town," a comedy. Eleven seniors will be staged in the drama, seven girls and four boys, and Mrs. Guy B. Tabor, sponsor, will be director.

"As soon as the play books arrive, try-outs will be held, and the production date will probably be the first of March," said Mrs. Tabor.

TIME TO AWAKEN!

In many of the rooms of Canyon Grade School weaving, sewing, and knitting are being done as war projects; while in others, quilting, saving, and gathering scrap are undertaken, in addition to buying War Savings Stamps and Bonds.

Some people might think that children don't realize what a horrible thing this war is, but these youths have proved beyond all doubt that they understand that their help is desperately needed.

These pupils in grade school have led many adults to the light, and have surpassed Canyon High School by far. Their huge scrap heap shamed the tiny one of the high school; their Bond and Stamp sales are exceeding those of the high school each week. These pupils have made contributions to the Red

Road Trip to East Started

Colorful Buffs Left Wednesday for Three Games, One in Garden

A West Texas State College basketball team which successfully invaded the East and Middle West last year left yesterday for its last long road trip before entering active military service. Opponents will be Canisius College at Buffalo N. Y. on January 23, Long Island U. at Madison Square Garden on January 27, and St. Joseph's College at Philadelphia on January 30.

Seven straight wins indicate that the towering West Texans are hitting a fast pace despite loss of more than half of their 1941-42 starters. Top scorers this year are the sensational Johnson brothers, Clark at center and Charles at guard, and Captain William Stockman, another guard. Forwards available for the trip will include Jack Maddox, who ranked next to All American Price Brookfield last season, Ledru Jacobs, and Douglas Groom.

Scarcely less tall than usual and perhaps a shade faster, this year's Buffalo squad has overcome early season handicaps of ineligibilities, illness, and injuries. Last week Texas Tech gave the Buffs fine preparation for the trip by forcing them to spare nothing in winning by scores of 78-61 and 50-47. Tech led most of the way in the second game before going under when the West Texans mustered all their scoring power.

Last year the colorful West Texans defeated New York State at Buffalo, 105 to 42 and St Joseph's at Philadelphia, 59-56, but lost two thrillers in the Garden—a 58-56 tussle with Long Island U. and a 59-58 contest with Creighton.

The current Buffalo team is coached by Gus Miller, who replaced Al Baggett when the latter, now an Air Corps captain, became director of physical training in the third district (Tulsa, Okla.) of the Technical Training Command.

FOOLPROOF

A farmer engaged a young man from town and discovered that he was not very bright.

The new man was constantly putting the end boards of the cart on wrong. He would put the front board on behind and the back board in the front. Finally the farmer painted a large "B" on each board and called the man's attention to them.

"Now, blockhead," he said, "you can't make any more mistakes. That 'B' is for 'before' and this 'B' is for 'behind.'"

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands, but like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and, following them, you reach your destiny.—Carl Schurz.

ON THE ALERT—Thoroughly trained for guard duty, this collie helps the sentry to watch over the Army's air base at Mitchel Field, while the world sleeps. He's one of many trained dogs serving the armed forces.
